

Our mission is to provide children with the necessary financial literacy skills to navigate the complexities of the modern economy. Through engaging and interactive educational programs, we aim to empower children to make informed decisions about their finances and develop healthy financial habits that will serve them throughout their lives. We believe that every child deserves the opportunity to build a solid foundation of financial knowledge and skills, and we are committed to providing accessible and effective resources that will help them achieve their goals.

December 2023 Newsletter

Topic: How to Make Money Online (8-12-year-old kids edition)

The internet is a great place to make money, even for kids. There are many different ways to make money online, but some of the most popular options for kids include:

- Taking surveys: There are many websites that will pay you to take surveys. This is a relatively easy way to make money, but it's important to only take surveys from reputable websites.
- Watching videos: Some websites will pay you to watch videos. This is another easy way to make money, but it's important to note that you won't make a lot of money doing this.
- Playing games: There are some websites that will pay you to play games. This is a fun way to make money, but it's important to note that you won't make a lot of money doing this.
- Creating content: If you're good at writing, creating videos, or designing graphics, you can make money by creating content and selling it online. This is a more challenging way to make money, but it has the potential to be very rewarding.
- Freelancing: If you have skills that are in demand, such as writing, coding, or design, you can offer your services as a freelancer. This is a great way to make money, but it's important to be reliable and deliver high-quality work.

Here are a few additional tips for kids who are trying to make money online:

- Be honest and upfront about your age. Many websites have age restrictions, so it's important to be honest about your age when you're signing up for an account.

- Get permission from your parents. Before you start making money online, it's important to get permission from your parents. They can help you choose safe and reputable websites to work with.
- Be patient. It takes time to make money online. Don't expect to get rich quick. Just focus on providing high-quality work or services, and the money will eventually come.

Here are a few specific websites and apps that kids can use to make money online:

- Swagbucks: Swagbucks is a website that pays you to take surveys, watch videos, and play games. You can also earn Swagbucks by shopping online and using coupons.
- InboxDollars: InboxDollars is similar to Swagbucks. It pays you to take surveys, watch videos, and play games. You can also earn InboxDollars by shopping online and using coupons.
- YouTube: If you're good at creating videos, you can make money on YouTube by posting videos that people want to watch. Once you have enough subscribers and views, you can start monetizing your videos with ads.
- Etsy: If you're good at making crafts or other handmade items, you can sell them on Etsy. Etsy is a marketplace where people can buy and sell unique and handmade items.
- Fiverr: Fiverr is a website where people can offer their services for $5. This is a great way to make money if you have skills that are in demand, such as writing, coding, or design.

Making money online can be a great way for kids to learn about financial responsibility and to earn some extra cash. By following the tips above, kids can safely and successfully make money online.